7. There is a bill that proposes a change to Daylight Savings Time. Those who don't want Daylight Savings Time say it's bothersome to have to change clocks twice a year. Those who would like to keep Daylight Savings Time say it provides more daylight hours in the evenings for recreation and family time. Without it, the sun would begin to come up before 5 am in some of the summer months. Utah should:

2. ___Stay on Standard Time year round

2. ___Oppose
3. ___Undecided
