

Current law requires motorcyclists to wear a helmet until age 18. Do you support increasing that to age 21? (Those in favor cite emergency room reports that show increased serious head trauma from young adults not wearing a helmet while riding a motorcycle. Those in opposition say that it should be up to the motorcyclist on whether they should wear a helmet.)

